Funeral Advance

What is the purpose of the DPF Funeral Advance?

Debswana Pension Fund introduced the Funeral Advance to offer relief to families of deceased members who may require funds for the members burial. Relatives of the deceased member can receive assistance equivalent to 20% of the members fund credit but not exceeding P50,000 for burial costs.

Who is covered?

All members of the fund are eligible for this benefit, subject to the availability of funds or in the case of a pensioner, a benefit entitled to beneficiaries.

Do I need to apply for?

By virtue of being a DPF member you automatically qualify, with no forms or extra fees required.

Are there any exclusions?

Yes, the cover shall exclude pensioner members who upon retirement elected:

- Joint Life option
- Life Only option
- Have exceeded 5,10,15 and 20 year guaranteed.

What is the procedure?

In the event of death, the next of kin, spouse, parent or a child shall write a letter to Debswana Pension Fund Administrator, Mmila Fund Administrators requesting for the funds with the following attachments.

1. Enclose proof of death, such as a death notification form or death certificate.
2. Provide an affidavit or a signed letter from the Chief or District Commissioner, indicating agreement for an advance to the nominated family representative.
3. Ensure that the affidavit reflects the nominated family representative's full names as per national identification documents. Upon verification, payment will be made to the nominated person.
4. The Fund will issue a bank transfer to the next of kin after completing all investigations.
5. The fund credit of the deceased will be reduced by the amount advanced to the family for burial. The remaining fund credit will be paid in accordance with the Fund rules.

Important Note:
Please note that the benefit is paid only before the burial of the deceased member. If all required documents are available, payments can be disbursed in less than 24 hours.

Is it compulsory to take this?

Taking the funeral advance is optional. If no claim is lodged, deceased benefits are paid out to beneficiaries as per norm.

The DPF funeral advance serves as a valuable resource for families in need during challenging times, providing timely financial assistance with minimal hassle.

Members who are not in favour of this provision, can put in writing to the Fund while still alive, barring any such claims in the event of their death.
